Over-Night Wireless To the Advertiser

Over one hundred and fifteen persons were drowned today on the Northern Dvina River, Russia, as a result of a collision between two steamers, according to a dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Information News Agency.

Mrs. Gertrude Johnson, of Chicago, aged twenty years, a bride of six months, committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas in her home, 1712 Burling street, when her husband failed to return home.

The United States ambassador, Henry Lane Wilson, today declared he would not long defer definite action in the interest of W. C. Nichols, a citizen of the United States, a fruit-grower, now in Tampico jail. Governor Guerrero of the State of Tamaulipas has not replied to the United States ambassador's demand for Nichols' removal from the jail, and Mr. Wilson today said in the event of further delay, his action would be in line with the determination he announced on Saturday to secure Nichols' release from jail, even if it should become necessary to land marines from the cruiser Des Moines, now in Tampico.

The ambassador has been advised that Nichols is ill and that his life is in jeopardy as a result of his confinement. The charge against him is the killing of a bandit, Caballos, who had been wanted by the authorities for months.

Great anxiety is felt for the safety of three sailing ships outward-bound from Sydney and Newcastle, and reinsurance have been made at a high figure. The bark Eldo, 159 days out from Sydney to Falmouth is quoted at five guineas per cent; the Celtic Glen, eighty-seven days out from Newcastle to Iquique, ten guineas; ship Mount Carmel, 103 days from Sydney to Iquique, ten guineas.

Governor Woodrow Wilson was alone in his study about one o'clock this morning reading a book which he had taken up after everybody in the house had gone to bed save himself, when three men in an automobile tried to steal the big State flag which flies from a seventy-five-foot pole in front of the house.

The relations between Turkey and Bulgaria have suddenly become decidedly critical. Twenty wagonloads of war material transhipped at Salonica for the Serbian government, according to a dispatch from that city to the Times, have been stopped by Turkish authorities.

The fourth arrest following the alleged dynamite planting by the textile interests in the recent Lawrence strike has been made with the taking into custody of William R. Rice, a wealthy quarry owner of East Milton.

A detail of officers from the President will leave for Honolulu on November 5, where they will serve as umpires in the combined army and militia maneuvers of the Department of Hawaii.

They are: Major R. H. Noble, Twelfth Infantry; Captain Morton F. Smith, Twentieth Infantry; Captain H. J. Breese, Cavalry; Lieutenant Maxwell Murray, Coast Artillery Corps; and Captain Douglas McCaskey, First Cavalry.

If he had always carried his few odd coins around in his pocket—to spend on every trifling or imagined necessity—he would be "poor Andy" today. After all, the chief difference between the poor and prosperous man is the ability to begin to save. You can begin with one dollar—the one you have in your pocket now.
